

Supplier of the Year Award 2008

Bang Pa-In, Thailand, November 14, 2008 – It might just be another normal working day for other companies but for SMT Technologies (SMTT) it was once-in-a-lifetime precious moment. At 1130h, John Sawyer, the senior SQE director of Western Digital Corporation (WD) presented the Supplier of the Year Award 2008 to KH Tai, the managing director of SMTT and also the executive chairman of EG Industries Berhad at Western Digital's Bang Pa-In manufacturing plant. The award was rated based on combined best quality and business performance over the WD's fiscal year 2008.

Having served the EMS industry for the 15 years, SMTT has been producing the printed circuit board assemblies (PCBAs) for Western Digital for over 13 years.

"We would like to thank Western Digital for giving us the opportunity to serve Western Digital for the long period and presented us such a great award. We will continue to strive for betterment and to serve Western Digital with our best service and quality", said SMTT's business development director at the end of the award ceremony.
